edings of the Conventions at Front ayal and Lynchburg-Colonel Tom Smith's Scorehing Speech.

(Special telegram to the Dispatch.) FRONT ROYAL, VA., August 24.-Hon. saries T. O'Ferrall was nominated here to-day for Congress by acclamation by one of the largest and most enthusiastic conntions which have met in the district for rs. Mr. John T. Lovell and C. A. dacatee were made temporary chairman and secretary. Mr. Charles F. Nelson, of ick, was made permanent chairman and the editors of the Democratic papers present of the district permanent secreta-ries. Colonel O'Ferrall was nominated by Mr. A. Moore, of Clarke, and the nomina-tion secozded by Mr. D. C. O'Flaherty, of sided.

The first speaker was Mr. Clinton G.
Beyce, of Richmond, a young student of Richmond College. He made a neat and effective speech. Though young in years, his case of delivery and fluency of expression would have done credit to a far older head. When he closed bouquets were showered upon him from the gallery, occupied by the ladies. The chairman then introduced Hon. H. D. Flood, the Democratic elector for the Tenth District, who for more than an hour held the closest attention of his audience by his eloquent words and convincing logic.

The part of the speech was frequently interrupted by applause, and at its conclusion he was the recipient of many flowers from the gallery aforesaid.

After the Democratic speaking was over

He dissected with a master hand the iniquities of the Republican party and portrayed the danger of the perpetuation of the same by Democrats attempting to seek redress through other than the Democratic party. He paid his respects to Messrs. Weaver and Field in a manner which, it is safe to say, would not have been relished by those gentlemen could they have heard it. His speech was frequently interrupted by applause, and at its conclusion he was the gallery aforesaid.

THIND-PARTY DELEGATES.

After the Democratic speaking was over

Mr. Charles E. Harris, of this county, made a speech on the court-green to mem-bers of the Third party. It is understood delegates were elected to day to the Thirddelegates were elected to-day to the Third-par y congressional convention at Am-herst Courthouse on the 26th instant. I do not think they will damage the Demo-eratic party much in this county, as they will probably draw almost as many re-cruits from the Republicans as Democrats. Direct Tax Commissioner John Horsley was busily engaged all day in paying claimants.

Crops have suffered a great deal from the prolonged drought, and, taking the county as a whole, they are the most indifferent since the war.

DOUBLE DELEGATION SET ASIDE. Catholic Schools Completed and to Be Opened-Action of a Democratic Club.

[Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.]

Nonrolk, August %:—The district committee have put aside the double election of delegates and members of the Executive Committee in the Tanner's Creek District of Norfolk county and ordered a new election to be held early next month.

The Catholic Seminary buildings commenced in Portsmouth on Washington and London streets have been completed and the schools will be opened on the 1st proximo by teachers of the Xavier Brotherhood. A comfortable residence has been fitted up for the brothers adjoining St. Patrick's Hall.

A Good CLUB.

The Young Men's Democratic Club of Portsmouth held an enthusiastic meeting last might, selected speakers, ordered the purchase of a handsome campaign banner, and determined to send delegates to the national association in Washington next month.

Congressman Lawson, General Taliaferro, of Glucester, and State-Senator Barnes were in attendance on the District Committee meeting.

Btevenson was a great success in every way. A slight rain in the morning diminished the crowd somewhat, but still there were thousands of Democrats in town. The first speeches were made in Market Hall, on the Tennessee side. After hoisting a large flag on Main street the 2,000 seats were quickly filled.

Ex-Governor Robert L. Taylor, the first speaker, was introduced by Sam. V. Fulkerson. He made a telling speech, which was received with the wildest enthusiasm. John W. Marshall, nominee of the Ninth District for Congress, was introduced by C. H. Stack, and also made a great speech. To-night Hon. John Goode and Hon. Joe Wysor made addresses in Harmeling Opera-House, on the Virginia side, before an immense audience. They were both bothusiastically received. Staunton, Va., August 24.—To-day, the second day of the Baldwin District Fair, had a fair attendance despite the rainfall. The exhibits are good, especially the display of machinery, farm implements, horses, and cattle. Each day Miss Lecklare goes up in a balloon and drops with a parachute. To-day she went up 5,000 feet, and jumping with her parachute landed safely in Park addition. Owing to the rain there was only one trial of speed, the balance of the programme being deforred till to-morrow.

The race was as follows: Trotting, purse $250, three-minute class, heats best three in five—won in straight heats by Major Asher W. Garber's Halcombe, a Richmond

Grounds for the Theory of Motive on

Miss Lizzie's Part. FALL RIVER, Mass., August 24.—It has come to the knowledge of the public to-day that Bridget Sullivan had long before the tragedy of the Borden home confided to intimate friends certain facts which leave little doubt that there had been a leave little doubt that there had been a constant warfare going on in the Second-street house. Mrs. Borden and her step-daughters were on anything but pleasant terms with each other, although the former tried in every way to establish pleasant relations. Lizzie showed more antipathy toward the elder woman than did her sister. It is supposed that at the inquest Bridget Sullivan divulged a great deal of important information of this character, and furnished the government broad grounds on which to base the theory of a motive for the crime.

BOGUS BANKERS ARRESTED. A Branch of Their Swindling Concern in

[By telegraph to the Irispatch.]

New York, August 24.—William H. Roberts and Neil McCallum, the president and secretary, respectively, of the alleged bogus banking-house known as the Finance Trading Company, of 10 Wall street, were arrested this morning by Central-Office detectives, charged with swinding a number of firms with whom they did business. These parties also ran a bogus branch of the New York house at Marion, N. C.

Democracy for the Masses. The following letter from a former Rich nond boy appeared in the New York World of Sunday last: of Sunday last:

Your laudable effort to create a popular fund for an aggressive campaign in certain western States meets the approval of many Democrats and 'tarif-reformers now enjoying their vacations at this delightful summer resort, and reinforced by the stirring letter of Mr. Josiah Quincy, who stands at the head of the young Democracy of Massachusetts, I am prompted to add my mite of $25 to keep up the record alluded to by ex-Speaker Reed in his late speech in Portland, Me., that 'the Democracy is never on the defensive.' I hope it will always be so, and in this campaign cracy is never on the detensive." I hope it will always be so, and in this campaign the "Aggressive Democracy" will attack McKinlevites in their hitherto intrenched strongholds, as they did in Massachusetts under the leadership of Quincy, Russoll, Andrew, Williams, O'Neil, Crosby, and scores of fighting Democrats, whose careers need no defence as citizens, officers, or legislators. Democracy for the masses, Republicanism for the classes can be taught in the West as it has been in the East.

RALEIGH. N. C., August 24.—Governor Holt to-day appointed James C. MacRea, of Cumberland, Associate Justice of the Supreme Court, to succeed Hon. J. J. Davis, who died week before last. The appointment was expected. Judge Mac-Rae served for a number of years in the Superior Court, always with ability. He was defeated for renomination by an Alliance-Third-party combination, it is alleged. His appointment gives general satisfaction.

An extra force will be put on this week at Democratic headquarters to send out great quantities of newspapers and other campaign literature. Much use will be made of newspapers in this connection. The State Association of Democratic Clubs is working hard to effect a thorough organization all over the State. The secretary is advised that there is a great desire for the formation of such clubs in the country districts. This is a new feature, since two years ago most of the clubs were in cities and towns.
